

NEVER WRITE (OR LEAVE) THIS WORD IN A CHANGE ORDER

Learn more about the lurking risks of change orders and how to protect your architectural practice.

2025 TOP TEN RISK EDUCATION ARTICLES AND RESOURCES FOR ARCHITECTS

Find out what Architects have been reading in 2025 with the Top Ten Risk Education articles and resources.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO POLICYHOLDERS: UNDERWRITING SYSTEM UPDATE

We are making updates to our underwriting systems to serve you better.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO POLICYHOLDERS: SUPPORTING YOU DURING THE CANADA POST STRIKE

During the Canada Post strike, continue to maintain your professional liability coverage at all times. Here's how.

STARTING YOUR OWN ARCHITECTURAL FIRM IN ONTARIO: WHY PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE IS ESSENTIAL

Launching your own architectural firm comes with serious responsibilities. Professional Liability Insurance is one of them.

THINKING OF DESIGNING YOUR OWN HOME? FIVE THINGS EVERY ARCHITECT SHOULD CONSIDER

Learn about the five risks to consider, and how Professional Liability Insurance (PLI) responds, when architects design their own homes.

THE BEST CONTRACT FOR AN ARCHITECT TO USE

A written contract is a necessity with every client and subconsultant on every project. Pro-Demnity's John Hackett, Executive Advisor, explains why.

DAVID V GOLIATH: ENHANCING NEGOTIATION STRATEGIES FOR ARCHITECTS

A summary, and highlights, from the presentation made at the 2025 OAA Conference.

HOW TO ACCESS PRO-DEMNITY SERVICES DURING A POSTAL SERVICE DISRUPTION

Minimize the impact of any postal service disruption on your professional liability insurance requirements.

PRO-DEMNITY'S 2025 OAA CONFERENCE MATERIALS

Access Pro-Demnity's 2025 OAA Conference resources, including our presentation: David v. Goliath: A Stone's throw away to a better negotiating position.